THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From THURSDAY March 5, to THURSDAY March 12, 1741.

South-Carolina.

By the Honourable

William Bull Eſq;

Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, to whom his Majeſty has intruſted the Adminiſtration of the Government during his Abſence, having been informed that great Quantities of Proviſions have been exported from ſeveral of his Majeſty's Colonies in North-America, for the Uſe of Foreign Colonies; which Practice in the preſent Conjuncture may be highly prejudicial to his Majeſty's Service. Their Excellencies have thought fit to direct, that I ſhou'd cauſe all Ships laden with Proviſions, and not in his Majeſty's Service, that ſail from any of the Ports within this Government, to give ſufficient Security to land the ſaid Proviſions in ſome Part of his Majeſty's Dominions.

I have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice and Conſent of his Majeſty's Honnurable Council, to iſſue this my Proclamation, in order to prevent as far as may be any Inconveniencys that may ariſe to all Perſons concerned in the Exportation of Proviſions, to give Notice thereof, hereby ſtrictly enjoining and forbiding all Perſons whatſoever to export any Proviſions of what Kind ſoever to any foreign Colonies.

Given under my Hand and the great Seal of this his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, this Fourth Day of March, Anno Dom. One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty, and in the Fourteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

By His Honour's Command,
Wm G. Freeman, Dep. Secr.

WILLIAM BULL.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

LONDON, Dec. 9.

The French Court, according to Letters of the 25th ult O. S from Hamburgh, has made another Remittance of 300,000 Livres to Stockholm.

Dec 13. We hear, that the Fleet for the Channel Service will be augmented to 45 Sail, chiefly of the Line, to be divided into three Squadrons, and cammanded by three Admirals; which are ſuppoſed to be Sir John Norris, Admiral Balchen, and Admiral Stewart.

'Tis expected that ſeveral Men of War will be commiſſion'd at the Admiralty next Week.

'Tis ſaid that Commodore Brown, with twelve Ships of the Line, will ſoon ſail for Jamaica.

We hear that Orders are given to the Subaltern Officers to raiſe 5000 additional Land Forces with the utmoſt Expedition.

Dec 18. His Majeſty's Ships the Argyle and Grafton are ſail'd from Spithead for Jamaica, with ſuch Store ſhips as were ready.

A Proclamation will ſhortly be iſſued out for the Encouragement of Seamen and Land-Forces.

They write from Gibraltar of the 20th paſt, that a rich Prize had a few Days before the Date been brought in there by an Engliſh Man of War. It prov'd to be a French Ship of 20 Braſs Guns, carrying Proviſions to the Spaniards. She had about 3000 Meaſures of Corn on Board, beſides 10,000 Dollars, and a Spaniſh Serjeant and ſix Soldiers, which have been made Priſoners of War, but the Captain and Crew have been ſet at Liberty.

This Week his Majeſty will appoint the Colonels to the ſeveral Regiments ſpeedily to be rais'd.

They write from Worceſter, that there is now as great a Flood upon the Severn as has been known ſince 1672, and that Boats ply in ſome of the Streets.

Several Merchant ſhips are ordered to be taken into his Majeſty's Service, to carry Stores to Gibraltar, Port-Mahon and the Weſt Indies.

We are informed, that the Right Hon. the Commiſſioners of the Navy have given Notice that they are ready to contract with any of the Builders on the River Thames, for building Men of War from 70 Guns downwards, and they have all had Notice accordingly to give in their Propoſals as ſoon as poſſible, they being to be built with all Expedition.

Dec. 23. A great Number of brave, old, ſubaltern Officers are arrived in Town from Ireland, and the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, &c. in Expectation of being provided for in the Regiments which are ordered to be rais'd with all Expedition.

NEW-PORT, January 30. Our Harbour and all the Bay is froze, ſo that People ride from this Town to Providence, which was never known ſince the Memory of Man before; ſeveral People come from Canaukut upon the Ice to this Iſland, and Chaiſes and Slays go over to the Fort, and Sleds loaded with Wood are brought over the Harbour on the Ice from Mr. Brenton's Farm.

BOSTON,

Jan. 19. Laſt Tueſday Night, a Sloop from Antigua, bound to Rho Iſland, Capt Child, Maſter, drove on ſhore in the Storm on Lovell's Iſland, we hear that the Sloop is entirely loſt, and moſt of the Cargo; Men ſav'd.

Jan. 26. Our Harbour is now clear of Ice, ſo that Veſſels can come in and go out without and Danger.

February 9. We hear from New-Hampſhire, that their River is frozen over, which is a very unuſual Thing.

CHARLES-TOWN.

Juſt now arrived here Capt. Wilkinſon in Three Weeks, from Jamaica, who informs us, that Admiral VERNON ſail'd from Port-Royal in Jamaica about a Fortnight before him. And that juſt before he came away, a Pacquet was arrived at Port-Antonio for the Governor, with Advice, that the ſaid Admiral had deſtroy'd Fifteen Sail of the French Fleet at Port Louis
